Honeywell Announces Updates for MPD31D Front Cover, Printer Mechanism (Contains Rubber Roller), and Rubber Roller

Honeywell is pleased to announce that the MPD31D Front Cover, Printer Mechanism (contains rubber roller), and Rubber Roller have been updated to a new version. MPD31D units with a serial number (SN) 148R2400001 and later are equipped with the new version of these components. Units with a SN prior to 148R2400001 belong to the old version.

MPD31D

For units with the older version, if either the front cover or the printer mechanism requires replacement, both components must be replaced simultaneously. Additionally, the new rubber roller cannot be individually installed in the older version of the MPD31D.
